Now that's a garage sale. The lady went to the restroom during a garage sale. And her crutches were sold in her absence. An undisclosed amount in restitution was made.

It happened in St. Paul, Minn., the other day. And it was billed "The Greatest Garage Sale on Earth" which took in $84,725, but netted the St. Paul Chamber and Arts Council only $1,900.

The auctioneer and aides, who were paid $32,000 in salaries, must have been eager all day. A forklift truck was accidentally sold for $35 which was worth $350.

The salaries were necessary because there were no volunteers available until the sale began. They included $14,000 to one woman who worked seven months to co-ordinate the event.

After the crutches incident, not too many people went to the bathroom.

Charge Filed On Youth In Gun Incident

A charge of burglary of an auto was filed in JP Jess Brock's court against Leroy Hardman, 17, who was arrested late Friday afternoon by Cameron police.

The youth and a juvenile took two rifles from an auto, fled into the Cameron Nursing Home, and were caught near the school campus.

Bond for Hardman was set at $2000 and the juvenile was turned over to juvenile authorities.

The sight of two youths with rifles caused a scare in the nursing home, but they ran out when they sighted an aide in the hall and fled to 12th St. where they were arrested. The guns, taken from Mrs. Homer Nabours' car on 11th St., were recovered by police from some bushes where they were thrown.

The incident occurred about 5 p.m. Friday, and police were called by a nurse at the home when the boys were sighted.

In other police action, charges of escape and DWI were filed against Oscar F. Cook of Houston who left the police station Saturday while an officer was preparing a DWI charge against him.

He was stopped in his car just a few minutes later at the west city limits.

Meal Program Studied For Buckholts Area

Plans are moving forward in Buckholts for a senior citizen lunch program, similar to the successful program now in progress at Cameron.

A local coordinator, Mrs. Mickey Hopkins, is working with the Hill Country Community Action Agency in making plans for the program and in the search for a location for serving the meals.

So far, plans call for the meals to be served once or twice a week, with HCCAA providing money for the meals and the city providing the location.

Mayor Richard Crowe said the area "easily has 50 to 60 senior citizens, most retired, who would benefit by the program." Many of them travel to Cameron to participate in sharing meals and other activities.

County Officials Eye Budget Needs

County officials met Monday afternoon in a called session to discuss ways and means of figuring expenses for budgets for 1979, and also discussed the need for increased salaries for county employees.

The county is currently in the process of updating its tax rolls by comparing listings and values now carried by school districts in the county. County commissioners approved having each department figure a budget for 1979, to be included in that year's county budget so that officials can tell how taxes will have to be increased.

The county has been experiencing a deficit for the past two years as reserve funds are used for expenses that are running over the budget, and county officials agree that this cannot continue.

At Monday's meeting, officials were invited by Commissioner LaVert McKinney, presiding in the absence of County Judge O.

B. Harden, to express their views about salary increases.

Tax Assessor - Collector Valter White said none of his employees "are making a living wage," and he said a proper solution should be found that is fair to both taxpayers and employees. He recommended a salary increase to $600 a month for his employees.

He said pay was so low that two of his workers qualify for food stamps, and McKinney said some of his workers did too.

Sheriff Leroy Broadus said he had lost seven dispatcher - jailers since the first of the year because of the pay. He said he and his deputies are on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week. He also recommended $600 a month for dispatchers, and increases for deputies.

He added that it is hard to figure a budget 14 months in advance. McKinney said officers would have to try and anticipate what expenses would go up during that time.

Will McIntosh, probation officer, said the county ought to look into the future and allow for a 10 to 15 percent increase each year, but McKinney pointed out that the cost of living is up about 7 percent a year, according to latest figures.

Broadus said officers should be realistic about drawing up budgets, although no one can be exact, or the results "could haunt you in 1979."

Veteran Service Officer Porter Young pointed out that junior custodians at Alcoa make $6000 a year more than some county employees, and White added that city and school officials are making $2000 more than county officials.

District Clerk Leola Komar said with each department making up a budget, officials could become more aware of expenses and perhaps make efforts to trim some costs.

B'holts Sewer System At Halfway Mark

Barring bad weather delays, residents of Buckholts will be hooking on to the city's new sewer system sometime in March, according to Mayor Richard Crowe.

Crowe reports that work on the new treatment plant and on the sewer line installation is about half-way through. Work on the wastewater treatment plant started in early October and work on installing the lines began in July.

The treatment plant is located about a quarter mile north of town.

The mayor added that construction has moved along well because of the continued clement weather and he is still anticipating that the work will be completed by March.

"We really appreciate the patience of all residents in Buckholts who are bearing the in-

Try-Tex Plumbing Inc. of Waco is the contractor for the treatment plant and Barnes Plumbing Co. of Killen is laying the sewer collection lines.

The new system will replace the septic tanks used by the towns 161 homes and 15 businesses.

Milano School Board Approves Book Committee

The Milano School Board approved the text book committee for 1977-78 during its regular monthly meeting Friday.

Committee members are Charlie Martin, Roger Hashem, Betty Hill, Isabel Hodges, Don Haffley, Carolyn Haffley, Elsie Pierce, Evelyn Parker, and Jay Wise.

In other business, the board inspected the recently renovated bus shed supply area to serve as a weight room. The weight equipment will be introduced as part of the Milano High School athletic program.

Also, Supt. Charlie Martin reported on the favorable operation of the Milano Public Schools.

To Budget In Peace...

This is the era when liberals are sounding conservative because of fiscal realities like the national debt. The Republicans were in the White House and the Democrats in control of Congress in 1970 when the debt was $383 billions. That division of control continued through 1976 when the national debt reached an estimated $706 billions.

Since 1977, the estimated deficit is $787 billions. That is an increase of about 12 percent.

Any wonder there is a concern about energy solutions, agriculture solutions? Money paid for imports exceeds income from exports because of oil. Agriculture products are the only commodity holding well and the ag community talks of cutting back. The imbalance is now in tens of billions annually.

The old saw about "owing ourselves" won't stand in view of import-export imbalance. One measure of national confidence in the Carter Administration is the declining numbers of the stock market.

If national debt is doubling every 8 years, it conceivably could be $1500 billions by the mid-80s.

"Zero" based budgeting proposed by the Carter Administration is a start in narrowing this gap. But that interest continues to mount.

Few can remember Germany of the 1920s when it took a basket full of marks to buy a loaf of bread. Such inflation was the garden in which Nazism sprouted and flourished. Hitler took the government and almost took Europe.

The mark is quite sound these days. The dollar is not. Let's hope it doesn't take absolutism to turn down this inflation. Let's hope it doesn't take war to find out how to budget in peace.

National FFA Honors Bolt...

Earlier this month, Clark Bolt, farm editor of the Waco and Austin papers, received the Future Farmers of America's Distinguished Service Award.

He has been covering agriculture in Central Texas and has been attending FFA conventions for 25 years, which have grown in attendance from 7,500 to 20,000.

Clark Bolt is known as "Blue Stem" for the name of a column he writes in the Waco dailies. And he travels this region of Texas and to places throughout the country in search for agriculture news.

Ag news is not so good now. But Clark is still giving the broadbased coverage that attracts awards such as FFA's Distinguished Service Award.

He notes that most of the youngsters in FFA programs will never go into farming, which he says is the country's loss, but maybe the city's or another vocation's gain.

The Mizzou J-School grad also has daily radio farm shows and a weekly program on KCEN-TV. His is probably the biggest beat between Dallas and Houston. And he covers it well.

What's nice to know is that Clark Bolt is the only Texan to receive the FFA award this year.

No reason at all to ask why.

Battle Shaping Up For Primary

Now the Republicans as well as the Democrats have a battle on their hands in their gubernatorial primary. Dallas oil well drilling contractor William P. "Bill" Clements was a surprise entry into the GOP race last week. Former Republican State Chairman Ray Hutchison, who has planned to run all along, is due to enter November 29.

Other possibilities are former State Sen. Henry Grover of Houston, who came closer than any other Republican to winning the governor's office (in 1972), and former Ambassador Albert Bel Fay, also of Houston.

Clements, 60, who is a former U.S. Deputy secretary of defense under Presidents Nixon and Ford, heads a major drilling firm. He said he expects to wage a multi-million-dollar campaign and feels that top Texas Republican leaders are enthusiastic about his candidacy.

Zeroing in on the energy issue, Clements said he thinks he can mobilize the public and industry to protect Texas interests in Washington.

He claimed that Gov. Dolph Briscoe has done little to articulate Texas' side of the energy issue, and the state's senators lack expertise in the field.

Democratic gubernatorial candidates, meanwhile, are heating up their campaign. Gov. Briscoe, Atty. Gen. John Hill and former Gov. Preston Smith are out among the voters, beefing up their organizations and trying to get across their messages.

Appointments Announced

State Sen. Don Adams of Jasper will resign his senate seat to accept appointment as chief legal counsel to Gov. Briscoe effective January 1.

Briscoe appointed G. L. "Lynn" Tate of Corpus Christi as commissioner of the Texas Department of Labor and Standards.

Jackie St. Clair of Round Rock, the man Tate succeeded, was promptly named a member of the Texas Industrial Commission.

Briscoe also reappointed W. Grogan Lord of Georgetown to the State Securities Board and J. C. Dingwall of Austin to the State Depository Board.

Gas Rate Examined

Texas Railroad Commission turned down Pioneer Natural Gas Company's attempt to limit an inquiry into the Amarillo utility's proposed natural gas rate increase to 41 industrial contract customers in northwest Texas.

The commissions' gas utilities division was directed to reschedule a hearing for January 16 on Pioneer's statement of intent to boost gas service rates two cents per thousand cubic feet. The increase has been suspended for 120 days.

Pioneer was directed to produce all facts, evidence, information and data necessary to determine fair rates for the industrial customers.

Meanwhile, the commission ended a hearing before a team of examiners into whether Good Hope Refineries Inc., a major gas operator in South Texas, is overproducing in violation of RRC production allowances. Good Hope denied the allegations. Also at issue is whether the over-production, if it occurred, contributed to an increase in natural gas prices charged South and Central Texas cities by Lovaca Gathering Company.

State Courts Speak

Contrary to a federal court's ruling, the Third Court of Civil Appeals said the state does not have a constitutional obligation to provide free education to aliens' children.

The same court upheld state regulation of child care facilities operated by religious groups.

The State Supreme Court took under review the question whether Texas judges can give deadlocked juries "dynamite charges" to keep open minds and consider each other's opinions on cases to prevent mistrials.

you and the LAW

PRESENTED BY THE STATE BAR OF TEXAS

Q: My wife and I have been married three years. In 1971 she gave birth to a fatherless child, and I would like to adopt him. Here's the problem—I can't afford the cost of an attorney and court proceedings. Is there a less expensive way?

A: Adoption is a highly technical and delicate area of the law. To attempt to handle it yourself could be risky—it's not something to be taken lightly. You may be able to qualify for assistance from a Legal Aid Society. If not, you should reassess your motivations.

Q: My 14 year old son was taken into custody for a crime... will his offense be a part of his permanent record for the rest of his life?

A: The records of a juvenile are confidential. They are only open to inspection by law enforcement officers and other persons directly involved in the proceedings. You son may ask the court to seal his record two years after a final disposition has been made. If the juvenile court is assured that your son has had no further referrals or arrests and has complied with compulsory school attendance laws, the request to seal the records may be granted.

County Agent's Notes

Hay Market System Doesn't Make Sense

By Bill McCutchen
Milam County Extension Agent

Why isn't hay sold by quality instead of by the bale? That's a good question and one that can't really be answered with anything but "That's the way we've always done it."

In the 1977 State Hay Show at Austin recently the top bermuda entry had 18.2% crude protein and the lowest had a 3.5% crude protein. One of these hays was almost equal to that you would pour out of a sack and the other isn't worth hauling home but with today's marketing system on hay a buyer might pay as much for one as the other. It just doesn't make sense does it?

In the Oat-Rye-grass - Winter Annual hay class protein ranged from 23.5% to 7.8%. In the Sorghum-Sudan Class protein ranged from 3.2% to 16.2%, so you see this quality range is not just specific to bermudas.

Milam County producers placing well in the State Hay Show included Arthur Woelfel of Thorndale in the Legume and Legume-grass class exhibiting hay with an 11.3% crude protein and winning a red ribbon; Bill Duncan of Rockdale in the bermuda division with a 12.9% crude protein hay and winning a blue ribbon, and Perry Luetge of Rockdale also in the bermuda division with a 10.3% crude protein and winning a red ribbon.

Wouldn't it be wise to buy hay on a quality basis? I believe these gentlemen would agree that it would be.

Bell County pecan growers invited Milam participation -- There is a short pecan crop in Central Texas this year and this lead to the cancellation of several county shows including the Milam County show.

4-H CLUB NEWS

By Joseph D. Janak, Jr.
Assistant Milam County Extension Agent

With the County Livestock Show just around the corner, 4-H'ers will be getting into full swing again. Just a few days ago, the pigs which were raised from the gilts sponsored by Milam County Farm Bureau were weighed. The gilts are owned by Donna Hause of Buckholts, Marvin Rodenbeck of Thorndale, Clifton Salter and Susan Hicks both of Rockdale.

These four entered a management contest which will be judged by Dennis Tomascik, who furnished the boar for breeding the gilts back in May, and Joe Janak.

Also, at this time the top pig will be picked from each litter and given to new 4-H'ers who will show them in the County Show January 13 and 14.

Another project which Milam County 4-H and FFA students are participating in is the Broiler Program which is sponsored by the Cameron Chamber of Commerce. Fifty baby chicks will be given to each of the 34 youth who will in turn show the top five broilers at the county show. The first five places in the show will sell at the County Livestock Sale with every participant donating back to their sponsor 5 broilers.

By Chris Holcombe

Saving fuel energy is the theme for the 1977 Milam County 4-H Food Show. Plans are underway for the annual event to be held December 10 at the Methodist Fellowship Hall in Cameron. This event is open to any Milam County 4-H'er.

There are three divisions: Beginners -- those under the age of 9 by January 1, 1978; Juniors division -- those between the age of 9-13 by January 1, 1978; and the senior division -- for those between the ages of 14-19 by January 1, 1978.

Each division will have four classes: main dish, side dish, oreads and desserts, and snacks and beverages.

The entrant is to prepare a dish at home, bring the dish, a copy of their recipe, and a day's menu to be judged. Each individual is judged on their knowledge about their dish and their nutritional knowledge and the menu and the way the dish looks and tastes.

The top junior and the top senior in each division will represent Milam County in the District 4-H Food Show in February. Awards will be presented to these eight participants. All other participants will receive ribbons, certificates, and gifts.

A 4-H'er can prepare any dish they like, except candy and ice cream. A recipe book will be prepared of all the recipes entered and will be distributed to those present. If you are interested in participating, return the card enclosed in the November 4-H newsletter or contact our office by December 5th.

The Buckholts 4-H Club held its club food show on November 16th. Blue ribbons and certificates went to Jocelyn Glaser, Raye Nell Obermiller, and Charles Obermiller, Jr.

The Thorndale 4-H food show will be November 28, the Branchville 4-H Food Show on November 30, the Gause 4-H Food Show on December 1, Cameron 4-H Food Show on December 5, and the Rockdale 4-H Horse Club Food Show on December 6.

If you have any questions or are interested in participating, please contact our office.

CalvertCofC Planning Christmas Activities

Gene Gibson, president, presided over a meeting of the Calvert Chamber of Commerce Thursday Nov. 17 at 7 p.m. in the Chamber building.

Irvin Conitz reported on Trades Day which will be held Dec. 17. It will include Santa Claus, candy for the children, a performance by the Calvert High School band, and a drawing. Activities will begin about 1:30 p.m.

Mayor Cooper Wiese reported on information received from John Anderson concerning highway signs. Theresa Brooks was appointed to plan several designs for signs which would tell about Calvert. And Mayor Wiese will submit them for approval.

Reba Alsop, Philip G. Atkins, and Robert Comfort were appointed to a committee to get more brochures about Calvert printed. Those printed less than a year ago are almost gone. New ads will be sold, but the brochure will remain the same.

A tentative date was set for the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet. Dr. Joe Weldon Bailey was appointed to see about the speaker. The banquet is to be held around March 16, depending on the availability of a speaker.

W. D. Lander reported on the Flea Market held Nov. 5. There were 49 dealers in the 31 spaces. Most dealers said they did well and Lander said that there are 13 who have already paid the $3 fee for the Flea Market to be held Dec. 3.

Spaces will be made smaller and marked off. Odd-numbered spaces will be assigned to out-of-town people and even-numbered spaces will go to local people. Theresa Brooks noted that the Flea Market brought people to town who had never heard of Calvert before. Gibson complimented Lander. He said that Lander had put the flea market over. The flea market will be carried out through the winter.

Phil Atkins reported on advertising for the vacant cafe in Calvert. It's now a matter of waiting to see if there is any interest before proceeding with further advertising.

Gibson read a letter written to Mayor Wiese from Bob Norman regarding the missing railroad station which once served and marked Calvert. Norman suggested finding a small station with some gingerbread. He offered his help and services with any restoration. Lander, L. E. Maris, and Norman were appointed to try to secure a suitable structure.

Gibson welcomed new members, Mr. and Mrs. Kim Gray. There were 19 members present for the Thursday night meeting.

Baptist Women Study Missions, Enjoy Brunch

The Baptist Women of First Church, Rogers, met Saturday morning, Nov. 19, for a mission book review of "Rivers of Ink," the program was followed by a brunch.

Mrs. Shelby Jones, mission chairman, presided and presented the introduction and the first chapter of the book. Other women who assisted Mrs. Jones presented different phases of the book, which told of the power of the printed pages in Mexico and other Spanish speaking countries Guatemala, Costa Rica, Colombia, Ecuador, Chile, Peru, Uruguay, Paraguay, Argentine, Dominican Republic, and Spain.

Those who participated in the program were: Mrs. J. D. Knight, Mrs. Floyd Skeen, Mrs. Ricky Knight, Mrs. V. C. Russell, Mrs. Claude Foster and Mrs. B. F. Harbour.

The meeting room at the church was decorated with displays of the missionaries and their work in the countries discussed. Mrs. Jones showed a film strip of mission work during the morning.

The refreshment table carried out the Thanksgiving motif. Mrs. Jones gave the opening prayer and Mrs. Skeen the closing prayer.

Rogers HD Club Has Program On Vitamins

The Rogers Home Demonstration Club met Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Tommy Petty, with Mrs. B. J. Rawlings, president, conducting the meeting.

The Club voted to change the meeting day each month from the 4th Thursday to the 3rd Tuesday. Mrs. W. A. Warren, program chairman, introduced the speaker, Mrs. Ilene Miller, Bell County Extension agent. Mrs. Miller gave an illustrated talk on vitamins. She discussed how these vitamins help us, and she gave the foods that contain them. Mrs. Fred Spinn had charge of recreation. Mrs. Ella Poncik won the "Quarter Box" prize. Refreshments were served to 12 members and two guests.

The Christmas meeting will be a salad luncheon at 12:30 noon, December 15 at the home of Mrs. W. A. Warren.

Former Camerone On National TV

Friends of Joyce Hannon Carey, who want to see her on "The Price is Right," may do so on Dec. 9 from 9 to 10 a.m.

The program was scheduled earlier, but was interrupted by President Carter's message.

YOUR LIFE INSURANCE

Prepared by the American Society of Chartered Life Underwriters, the national society of life insurance professionals who have earned the C.L.U. designation by meeting high educational, ethical and experience requirements.

Q. I feel that what's mine is my husband's and what's his is mine and I live in a community property state as well. How would this affect death proceeds on life insurance?

A. In the eight community property states, generally what's his is half yours and vice-versa, from a legal standpoint. For example, insurance policies on the life of a husband or wife are generally considered to be community property. This means that only half of the proceeds will be subject to the estate tax upon the death of the insured. In all other states, however, all the proceeds will be in the insured owner's estate for estate tax purposes.

Comments From Chris

By Chris Holcombe
Milam County Extension Agent
Remember November 29th. This is the date for the annual fall Homemakers Shortcourse. Two identical meetings will be held at the Taylor High School, one at 2 p.m. and the other at 7 p.m.

Three presentations will be given on each of these programs. The first part will be on microwave ovens. This would be of interest to all family members whether you already have a microwave oven or whether or not you hope Santa might leave one under your Christmas tree.

Mrs. Linda Trojan will be presenting the program on microwave ovens. She will cover features, what to look for in selecting, and how to get the most out of your microwave oven, especially for holiday entertaining.

Dr. Bill Vastine, economist - marketing-food distribution with the Texas Agriculture Extension Service in College Station will talk about "You and Your Grocery Basket". He will cover what affects the cost of food, and what you the consumer can do to save money in the grocery store.

Also to give a touch of the holiday spirit, Jerry King, owner of the Main Place in Taylor will do a presentation on Main Place Christmas. He will cover decorating and gift ideas for the holidays.

These two programs are identical and are open to anyone interested. They are sponsored jointly by the Milam and Williamson County Family Living Committees and the Milam and Williamson County Extension Services. For more information contact either Chris Holcombe, Vivian Pittman or Judy Dedek. There is no charge for these programs.

Also mark your calendar for two programs on estate planning. Two identical programs will be presented on this subject in the county. On December 8th, 7 p.m. at the New Salem H. D. Club House in Fair Park and on December 13th, 7 p.m. at the Milam County Farm Bureau meeting Room in Cameron.

Tom Prater, economist-manager for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service in College Station and Mark Humble, local attorney will be presenting the programs.

These are open to anyone interested. And with the changes in the laws recently, this should be a very timely program.

MEETINGS

Business-Professional

Sister Mary Pauline, administrator of St. Edward Hospital, gave a program on public affairs to the Business and Professional Women's Club at a regular meeting Monday night.

Club members made plans for their Christmas party set for December 19.

A covered dish dinner was served to members and guests, Earline Moore and Sister Pauline.

Personals

Those attending the Walzel-Anderson wedding Saturday evening at A&M from Cameron were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Krull, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sheguit and Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Richter, Mr. and Mrs. George Snyder and family of Temple, Mr. and Mrs. Daman Dorris of Waco, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Richter, Chris and Kimberly of Hearne. The Walzels will make their home in College Station where he is a student at A&M.

Houston Recalls Early Days On 86th Birthday

Grady Houston visited the Herald office Nov. 17 on his 86th birthday. He was born in Cameron in 1891 and thinks he is one of the oldest natives.

Houston recalled selling weekly papers on Saturdays in the early days of open saloons and muddy streets. He has witnessed the many tragedies and changes in Cameron over the years.

"I am very thankful for my good health and my many friends," Houston said.

Psychology

Many psychologists say that children will often prefer to play with a toy or game that allows them to experience new sights and sensations—without taking them away from a safe environment and familiar faces.

Shower Fetes Bride-Elect

Pre-nuptial courtesies for Miss Monica Miller, bride-elect of Michael Huseby, included a miscellaneous shower on Nov. 5.

The affair was held at the United Church of Christ recreation center at Ben Arnold.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Monroe Lucko, Mrs. Leo Moraw, Mrs. Arnold Juergens, Mrs. Hermann Juergens. Mrs.

Arnold Rummel, Mrs. Willie St. all, Mrs. Raymond Barkmeyer and Mrs. Leland Burnett.

Miss Donna Rekieta, niece of the bride, registered the guests and Miss Jean Burnett assisted the bride in opening many beautiful gifts.

Cake squares, punch, nuts and mints were served.

Luncheon Fetes New Resident

Bickett

E. W. Bickett, 78, of San Antonio died Nov. 11 in a Kenedy hospital. Funeral service was at 3 p.m. Saturday at Mission Burial Park South.

Bickett was one of the organizers of the San Antonio Livestock and Rodeo and served as president for 26 years. He was a native of Cameron and owned and operated a medical supply house in San Antonio for many years before selling it a few years ago. He was also a rancher.

Under his leadership many buildings were added to the Joe Freeman Coliseum complex, site of the show and rodeo.

Bickett was a member of the First Presbyterian Church in San Antonio and of the Joe Freeman Coliseum board.

He is survived by a stepdaughter Mrs. Clyde Naftzger of San Antonio; two stepsons; a sister; a brother; and four step-grandchildren.

Mr. Bickett was the son of the late John H. Bickett, former sheriff of Milam County and also the nephew of the late A. W. Bickett, prominent farmer in the Marlow Community, and of the late Mrs. Lizzie Burnett and Jennie Ethridge.

Everyone is invited to share in the study and worship opportunities at the First United Methodist Church in Cameron.

Remote sensing

AUSTIN, Texas (Spl.) — Whether they are mapping the habitat of Texas wildlife or studying forest resources in East Texas, at least 16 state agencies are using remote sensing techniques developed from research at The University of Texas.

Remote sensing is a science that uses a variety of sensors — from infrared photography to X-ray spectrometers — to convert normally invisible electromagnetic energy into images or sounds. Sensing devices can gather data from aboard earth satellites or airplanes, among other vehicles. UT's Geography Department is recognized as a research leader in the field.

Hertenberger

Funeral for Frank Hertenberger, 86, of Cameron, was held Saturday Nov. 19 at Marek-Burns-Laywell Funeral Home in Cameron with the Rev. Ernest Helsley officiating. Burial was in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Hertenberger died Thursday, Nov. 17. He was born at Heidenheimer and was a retired farmer.

Travis L. Summerlin, a Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary student, has accepted the pastorate of the Little River Baptist Church, Cameron.

Summerlin began his ministry Nov. 13 after being called by the church the previous week. He is the former pastor of the Satin Baptist Church, Satin.

Sunken treasure

AUSTIN, Texas (Spl.) — Encrusted globs from the bottom of the sea are being "reborn" as valuable treasures from sunken Spanish galleons, thanks to a University of Texas laboratory working under a project of the Texas Antiquities Commission.

Within the past decade, UT's Texas Archaeological Research Laboratory has cleaned and preserved hundreds of artifacts (from cannons to crucifixes) found in three Spanish ships that sank in the mid-1500's off the Texas Gulf Coast.

Through complex conservation techniques it has devised, particularly in the use of electrolysis to preserve metal artifacts, the UT lab has acquired an international reputation for underwater archaeology.

The Understanding Chair

When we are young, rocking is a game. When we are old, it can become a way of life. And in between, there are countless occasions when rocking fulfills a human need . . . to think . . . to relax . . . to reminisce . . . to dream.

It's almost as though the rocking chair understands people, turning their restlessness into calm and contemplation.

But there are deeper human needs that find no comfort in the rhythm of the rocking chair—intense spiritual needs met only by communion with God.

The Church really understands people. Its worship, its teaching, its community service, all provide expression for man's spiritual needs. The soul's restlessness is turned into conviction and commitment.

Yoemen Drop Openers To Brenham A, JVs

A freethrow in the final seconds netted a first-game 57-56 game loss for the Yoe varsity basketballers who played the game one night early last Thursday at Yoe Gymnasium.

The Yoe JV also lost 38-25 in the warmup game, but the Yoe freshmen, undefeated though tied in the football season, won over the Brenham Cubs 28-22.

with 12 points. Dwayne Spells, Edward Johnson and Billy Pittman each hit 10.

The Yoemen enjoyed a 30-24 halftime lead, which vaporized until briefly in the fourth quarter when the Yoe had a 52-50 lead.

Ernest Duncan led the Yoe JV with 8 points.

In the winning frosh effort, Jasper Hardin led the Yoemen with 8 points, followed by Roderick Ruzicka with 6.

The three Yoemen clubs traveled to Marlin Tuesday night for the second game of the new season.

Prospects Bright For Deer, Turkey Hunts

Hunters were pleasantly surprised over most of the North Central Texas area on opening week-end, according to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department personnel.

Wildlife biologist Joe Stevens, operating weigh stations in Hamilton County, said that Saturday November 12 was the best opening day he could recall in the past few years. Hunter success was good.

Bucks had better than average horn growth and the majority of the deer were in "good" body condition. Stevens contributes this to some recent rain in the area and a good acorn crop.

He suggested this condition could not possibly last through the season, so hunters should take their deer early as possible.

Turkey hunting on the other hand, started a little slow according to wildlife biologist Larry Holland, who is stationed in Brownwood.

Holland was quick to add, "There is nothing alarming about this because most hunters are intent on taking deer first and then start hunting turkey. We have a good population of birds."

Innovations — from cover to cover — make this the most complete and informative edition of the Texas Almanac yet published. Here are selected standouts.

THE TRANS-PECOS. This colorful Texas area is vividly described by Frank X. Tolbert, Dr. Barton H. Warlock of Sul Ross State University and Mrs. Lee Bennett of Marfa. Included are the Big Bend, the Davis and Guadalupe Mountains with rare color photos furnished by the Dallas Museum of Natural History.

THE BLACKLANDS OF TEXAS. Written by Huey Whitehurst, Superintendent, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Renner.

TEXAS ELECTION BUREAU. An authoritative history by its veteran Director, Robert Johnson.

GARDENING IN TEXAS. Updated guidelines by horticulturists of Texas Agricultural Extension Service with informative maps and charts that break Texas into areas.

TEXAS CONSTITUTION. The return of this important document after its absence in the preceding edition.
